THE DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E PELL, Editor.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1865.

THE NATIONAL UNION TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,

Jonathan Worth, Esq.

OF RANDOLPH

ELECTION THURSDAY NOV. 9th.

THE PEOPLE must be trusted with their Government, and if trusted, my opinion is that they will act in good faith, and restore their former constitutional relations with all the States composing the Union.--Andrew Johnson's Letter to Gov. Sharkey, of Mississippi.

THE NATIONAL UNION PARTY.

We acknowledge His Excellency, ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, to be the head and leader of the great National Union party. His reconstruction policy is at present the basis of that party, and we stand firmly upon it. This is the only party we acknowledge in this State.

Election Returns.

We shall be glad for our friends to send us the earliest news of the results of the election, for Governor, Congress and Legislature.

Mr. Turner's Appointments.

Mr. Turner requests us to recall his appointments in the mountains, as he cannot attend them.

He requests us to state that he will address the people of Warren at Warrenton on the 8th inst.

☞ We are authorised to announce that Hon. A. H. ARRINGTON of Nash, has withdrawn from the canvass for Congress in this District. The contest is therefore strictly between Hon. Josiah Turner jr. and Col. Russ, as Col. Edwards cannot hope under the circumstances to get many votes. We regret that Mr. Arrington did not announce his name at an earlier day, and also distinctly state his preference for Governor. This would have prevented all complication. Col Russ is the Holden "strait sect" candidate.—Mr. Turner supports Mr. Worth and the liberal policy of President Johnson.

Gov. Perry and Gov. Holden.

The following extract from the Message of Gov. Perry to the Legislature of South Carolina now in session, exhibits the liberal views of that gentleman in carrying out President Johnson's policy, and puts in bold relief the contrast between his course and that of Gov Holden in this State. Let the reader carefully examine it:

"Although I received my appointment several months after other Provisional Governors had been commissioned, I have the pleasure of informing you that South Carolina is now as far advanced in her reconstruction as any other Southern State. Instead of wasting time in trying to fill all the civil offices of the State with my personal or political friends and partisans, I determined to restore those who were in office at the suspension of the civil government, and who had been elected by the people or appointed by the Legislature, and were familiar with their official duties. I knew too well the character of South Carolina to doubt for a moment that her sons would prove loyal and true, after renewing their oaths of allegiance to the United States. In this way I re-established civil government at once in South Carolina, and greatly expedited her reconstruction. An election for members of the Convention, to reform our State Constitution, was immediately ordered. Magistrates were authorized to administer the oath of allegiance so as to qualify the voters in time for the election. I also restored civil law throughout the State, and ordered the courts to be opened. These measures were objected to by the authorities, as transcending my powers as Provisional Governor.—But the President sustained me in all that I had done, and ordered the military authorities not to interfere with my policy of reconstruction. Like a wise statesman and patriot, he confides in the people, desires to see them enjoying civil liberty and also governing themselves. Washington had the immortal honor of creating the American Republic, and to Andrew Johnson will be assigned in history, the glory of having reconstructed its broken and dismembered fragments without marring its civil beauties. Like Washington, too, he is, by his just, wise and magnanimous policy, uniting and consolidating all parties in the support of his administration."

Gov. Perry's appointment was made months later than that of Gov. Holden's, and yet the Legislature of South Carolina is in session, if it has not already done its business and adjourned, Gov. Sharkey of Mississippi pursued the same policy and the Legislature of that State is about over, and Gov. Humphreys is exercising the office of civil governor. No two Governors have received from President Johnson such marked expressions of approval as Govs. Sharkey and Perry. Why is it, that these two States are in advance of North Carolina? Why is it, that our Legislature is not already in session, if not through with its business, and the State enjoying civil law throughout? Gov. Perry gives the true answer: "Instead of wasting time in trying to fill all the civil offices of the State with all my personal and political friends and partisans, I determined to restore those who were in office at the suspension of the civil government, and who had been elected by the Legislature and were familiar with their official duties."

Did Gov. Holden act as Gov. Perry did or did he not do exactly the reverse? Has he not wasted time in pursuing a directly opposite course? President Johnson and Gov. Perry were willing to "trust the people,"—they knew if the South Carolinians would return to their allegiance and take the oath, they could be trusted--But poor North Carolinians could not be. They were not secessionists, at least such as the South Carolinians were, it is true. They stood up for the old Union as long as they could, but because they stood up for the South when all hope for the Union was gone, and followed those "traitors" Z B. Vance, and W. A. Graham and the rest, Gov. Holden and the "strait sect" party could not trust them. That is the reason fellow-citizens North Carolina is behind. Gov. Holden has appointed old Whigs to office, it is true.—He has ignored almost entirely his old friends, the Democrats of North Carolina But has he not consumed time and kept the State back, by selecting those old Whigs for office and the few Democrats he has appointed, because he believed they sympathized with the "strait sect" party?

Here is the true ground of offence to the people of the State. The President declared that those who would take the oath should be esteemed loyal, but Gov. Holden determined otherwise. His paper has continued to denounce many of our best people as rebels and traitors.—President Johnson said "the people must be trusted," but Gov. Holden and his "strait sect" party, are not willing to trust them. Let the people rebuke this spirit and let it be done on Thursday next.

"False Reports Corrected."

The Standard charges that the statements made by the Washington correspondent, which we have copied in the Sentinel, are false reports, and labors to correct them.

The quotations which we have made from the Washington correspondent, are of two kinds.—First, what he knows to be true in reference to the sentiments of the Government,—such are the following:

"The government will not in any way interfere with the people of North Carolina, in respect to the choice for Governor. It is a matter entirely for the people, and any pretence that this or that candidate is to be elected on the demands of the government is without any authority whatever."

Again.

"Holden is trying to produce the impression that the President is for him. It is not true."

Again.

"I gave you assurance that the government did not demand, or require Holden's election."

Again.

"I know that the Government will do nothing to endorse Mr. Holden."

The second class of quotations which we have made from the correspondent, is the several statements which express the correspondent's own opinions, such as:

"I believe the election of Gov. Holden would prove a serious obstacle to the restoration of the State, &c.

These have been given sufficiently distinct heretofore, to enable the reader to judge correctly of them.

Of the correspondent, we repeat what we are assured is true, he enjoys the confidence of the government and is in a position to know the truth of what he asserts. We have never heard his veracity called in question. The Standard could not impeach his veracity, if it knew the man.

The Standard says that Gov Holden has in his possession the proofs of the friendship and confidence of President Johnson. We have said nothing to the contrary But does that prove that President Johnson desires or prefers his election as civil Governor? Is that the best evidence the Standard can furnish? The President may regard Gov Holden as his friend, but knowing his past record as he must now know it, he certainly cannot desire his election to a position which must weaken the influence of the State with the next Congress. Does not every one know if Gov. Holden had any thing in his possession which would clearly show that the President preferred him, that he would not withhold it from the public?

A Dialogue.

Something like the following occurred the other day.

Holdenite.—Mr. Worth was brought out by the secessionists?

Worthite.—That is not so--none but Conservative Union men urged him to run.

Holdenite.—Why the Sentinel does not deny that the secessionists brought him out.

Worthite.--The Sentinel does deny it. Be good enough to name one of the secessionists, who urged him to run.

Holdenite.—Why it is said, Charles C. Clark was one of them

Worthite.—Well, well, I know C. C. Clark well. We were raised in the same town, and I know that he was one of the most decided old Union men in Newbern. When the war come on he espoused the cause of the State and the South, and he sustained the course of Gov. Vance to the last, and now he is as good a Union man as we have.

This rather dumb foundered the Holdenite, but he still thought that the Sentinel had not denied it.

The Sentinel has denied it and does again. None but Union men urged Mr. Worth to run, but many who were formerly secessionists, in a choice between Mr. Worth and Mr. Holden, prefer Mr. Worth because of his uniform consistency, and especially because Mr. Worth advocates President Johnson's liberal policy and opposes the "strict sect" policy of Gov. Holden.

A Dare.

The Standard has repeatedly charged that there are Worth men in the State and some of the Banks, who are plotting to pay the State war debt, after the State is restored. We deny the charge emphatically. Now we dare the Standard to name one such man or one such Bank who has any plot or purpose of that sort.

The Standard is in a bad humor with the Sentinel because it published the articles of "New Yorker." We only know him as our correspondent, and we take him to be a gentleman.—We should certainly want better evidence to the contrary than the assertions of the Standard.

The Standard had labored to impress upon its readers, that Gov. Holden was the choice of President Johnson and the choice of the Northern people for our civil Governor. It had claimed that the Union army, officers and soldiers, endorsed him as the most fit man. Under these circumstances we allowed "New Yorker" to express his opinion, and judge that most of the army think with "New Yorker." Correspondents frequently use expressions which we by no means approve, but they are held responsible for what they say.

Out at Last!

We understand, on unquestionable authority, that Jo. Turner declared at Haywood that if Andrew Johnson were now a candidate for the Presidency, he "would not vote for him to save his life" Here it is at last. Col. Russ forced it out of the gentleman.

This confirms what we have repeatedly charged, that Turner, Pell, Worth & Co, are all hostile at heart to Andrew Johnson. Let Worth be elected, and a powerful party would at once exist in this State against the administration of Andrew Johnson.—Standard.

We doubt the truth of the above statement.—What the Standard says about our hostility to the President we know to be false, and so it is of Jonathan Worth. We honestly believe that President Johnson has far better grounds to expect the support of North Carolina if Mr. Worth be elected, than he would if Gov. Holden were elected. The friends of Jonathan Worth are more reliable as supporters of the President's liberal course, than the "straitest sect" men are.

If at any time we have been misled by incorrect information, we invariably correct the error. This the Standard never does, so far as we have seen. If it states a falsehood, it persists in repeating the falsehood; as for instance:

1st. It charges Mr. Worth and Jos Turner with being secessionists. When the proof to the contrary is given, it still repeats it.

2nd. It repeats the slander that Mr. Worth is a party to a plot to pay the State war debt. Mr. Worth denies it and yet it persists.

3rd. We have explained the position of the Sentinel in regard to the war debt, and yet it persists in its misrepresentation. We might go on, but we have not space to notice all its misrepresentations.

Rally Worth Men!

The accounts we receive from the different sections of the State, of Mr. Worth's prospects, increase our assurances of success constantly.—The people are tired of dictation. They know Jonathan Worth and they know W. W. Holden, and they will rebuke the dictation of the Standard with a will. If we had a week or two longer Jonathan Worth would roll up Gov. Vance's majority. Our present information however, assures us of Mr. Worth's election by a very decided majority.

The President's Opinion.

President Johnson trusts the people He wants them to make their own selection for Governor. He makes no choice for them. If the Standard had a particle of evidence to prove that the President prefers Mr. Holden, would it not give it to the people? It knows the potency of President Johnson's name in this State, and yet it does not affirm that President Johnson has expressed a preference for Gov. Holden as civil Governor.

Hon. W. Orr Elected in South Carolina.

We announced the other day upon the authority of New York papers that Gen. Hampton of South Carolina though not a candidate, had beaten Mr. Orr. We learn from the Charlotte Union that Mr. Orr is elected by 500 majority. We append the article of the Times.

Col. JAMES L. ORR, we see from the Columbia Phœnix, has been elected Governor of South Carolina. General Wade Hampton was voted for against his wishes, and ran Governor Orr within 500. A highly intelligent and respectable Methodist Minister, in a conversation with Governor Perry, mentioned the report that Hampton was elected, and asked if it were true what would be the consequences—as he (Hampton) was not pardoned. The Governor promptly replied, that he would, immediately, upon the fact being known to Mr. Johnson, receive his pardon.

Contrast the open, generous and magnanimous course pursued by Gov. Perry with that of Mr. Holden and his satellites in this State, and every North Carolinian will see reason to deplore the depths to which the effort is made to reduce us. "Vote for Holden and go into the Union, or Worth and stay out!" may influence a few craven souls, who deserve to be slaves, but in the hearts of the brave and manly, will raise such a storm of indignation and contempt as will blast politically the author of it forever. Are we freemen, or are we slaves?

Andrew Jackson—The Union must and shall be preserved.

Andrew Johnson—The Union must and shall be restored.

Jonathan Worth--I could not get the assent of my mind or heart to take part in the beginning of what I was sure would be one of the most terrible convulsions of history.

William W. Holden—We believe it to be the duty of every man in Nprth Carolina between the ages of 18 and 60, capable of bearing arms, and who has not already entered the army, to enroll his name in a military company—to equip himself the best he can for meeting the enemy, and to drill as often as he possibly can. [See Standard, May 29, 1861.)

Which of the two is most competent to knock at the door for re admittance? Worth and go back, or Holden and stay out. 'Choose ye!"—Greensboro' Patriot.

The Baptist State Convention met at Wake Forest College on Wednesday last and closed its proceedings on Saturday. The bad weather prevented a very large attendance. Its proceedings were very harmonious.

Who Killed Cock Robin?

The man who "had always held that a State had a right to secede for cause," "as an original, pre-existing, reserved, sovereign right"—the man who proclaimed on January 11, 1860, that "if a Black Republican or sectional President shall be elected in 1860, we will go with the South—we will stand by the side of South Carolina and Virginia * * * we will never bow our head to its degrading yoke"—the man who had a few days before said "if North Carolina shall submit to be governed and controlled by such apostates as Hedrick, Helper, and Goodloe, and shall bow her neck to the abolition yoke in 1860, or thereafter, she will go down in history with a blackness upon her character which the brightness of her revolutionary glory will only render more palpable and visible"—the man who pronounced the "government of Abram Lincoln" a "rank and bloody usurpation," and who urged the people to FIGHT, every where, all the time * * * for victory, for peace, for independence, for bread, for every thing"—the man who carried out these principles by actually voting the secession of our State in Convention—this man might by simple unsophisticated folks be considered something of a secessionist. But it will not do to say so, for the ardent and fighting young gentlemen who ostensibly conduct the Standard will not allow that. They will say the charge "that Gov Holden was ever a secessionist is infamously false." They will say it is "a stereotyped lie." They will choke people off by cramming in their teeth and down their throats those awful words which gentlemen do not willingly swallow. Peradventure these young men if they get very mad, may do worse, bore holes in our bodies, and send us howling to New Jerusalem. We had better take care what we say. These paper pellets may be only premonitory symptoms of pistols for two—maybe old "minnie" might distress our chitterlings as we turned the corner on some bright sunny day, making our light all darkness They might "put out the light," Who can tell? So, being in great danger, we should be greatly cautious. Let us be very gingerly in our remarks. Let us simply whisper that though the Governor was never a secessionist squarely, he was only a quasi secessionist--a secessionist sub modo--only a secessionist so-called. He only preached secession, wrote and voted secession? but was never by any means a bona fide "secessionist." Certainly not. It was one of his Excellency's old jokes, when he was called by another name—merely one of his juvenile indiscretions which should be generously pardoned, or stoutly denied; and the stigma should be fixed on "Joe" Turner and Jonathan Worth as convenient scapegoats True; these gentlemen and others were so anxious to kill off secession, that they came near killing themselves. They rashly attempted to take the bull by the horns, and the bull is now goring them for it. It may be that they deserve a few stripes for attempting to kill off secession, in that way. But failing in accomplishing by indirection, what they so much desired, they have ever since as always before, "by all the means that God and Nature put in their hands," resisted to the death, that odious heresy, so fraught with untold horrors. Those who know that stern old patriot Jonathan Worth, would sooner believe the record of those resolutions to have been falsely interpolated into the Senate Journal by Mr. Holden, then State printer—if Mr. Worth should say so, than that he ever, during one hour of his life, felt either sympathy or patience with either secession or revolution. The object of those resolutions has been sufficiently explained. Every man who has sense enough to go to mill, or spell crucifix without a k, understands their meaning. We almost think that the bright young couple who ostensibly edit the Standard, have not really mistaken their meaning. The Governor certainly knows all about it. But the trick is so cute! Well, politicians are obliged to be very smart. But youthful ones commit some ludicrous blunders. They have been known to mistake a boy's pop-gun for the "big gun of the campaign" Pop away, young gentlemen! Great sport with your goose quills and sliced potatoes. Hit him again! You will bring him down by and bye. Jonathan Worth cant stand them shots! We are sorry for the poor old crippled gentleman. So will be the people of Randolph and Guilford who knows what an awful "secesh" he has always been. They know, so does all the world and the rest of mankind. What a dangersome man is this Mr Worth. How diligently he has always labored to pull down, revolutionise and destroy the government—the very best the world ever saw. He has been a perfect Sampson at tearing down temples, and breaking down States and Kingdoms. Hit him again, the savage destroyer! He deserves it all. Let him be riddled into mince meat by a cock sparrow—tickled into diabolical spasms with straws—and then kicked into kingdom come by grass-hoppers! "Sic semper tyrannis"—and to traitors too.

Some credulous people do moreover affirm that Cock Robin is already defunct, and state the particulars of his "sudden taking off" with great circumstantiality. They refer to an ancient journal edited by Mother Goose (so called) from which they take "elegant extracts" setting forth that he was slain by a sparrow--that a fly was the witness thereto—that his pall was borne with great solemnity by a bird with a short tail--hat the sexton was an owl, and that a Durham Bull was the bell ringer on the mournful occasion.

Others being somewhat sceptical of these old records, do say that these "extracts are garbled," and do stoutly affirm the whole story to be apocryphal, and confidently assert that the so called defunct only sleepeth, and that too with one eye open. They further do say, that ever and anon, he cocketh this one eye in great glee at his own funeral procession so called, and winketh to his friends at the simplicity of some people, whom he will greatly surprise when he waketh up next Thursday. It were greatly to be wished to be able "tantas componere lites" by occular inspection of the "bonnd file" But Mother Goose's journal has by order of the father of the flock been cautiously hidden away and so locked up that all may not see and consult the same. The question must therefore remain in doubt until better times and better men may control the key of the public library. R.

The Worth County Ticket.

Remember that Nathan Ivey for the Senate, and T. Jeff. Utley, P. A. Dunn and John J. L. McCullers for the Commons, are the only Worth men before the people of Wake. Remember we are voting for principle, not for our friends merely. Let the Worth men stand up to the ticket.

Gen. Wade Hampton has been pardoned by the President. The General only lacked 500 votes of beating Mr Orr. The people have endorsed Gen. Hampton, and the President does the same. He says the people must be trusted.

For the Sentinel.

Badger Harris, Esq.

This gentleman is a candidate for a seat in the ensuing Legislature for the county of Granville, and is withal an out and out Worth man. At the Henderson precinct we learn the vote for him will approach unanimity. Oxford will give him a large majority, and at other polls we are satisfied he will run well. This ensures his election and the compliment is due alike to his talents and many virtues.

The contest then will lie as to the other candidates, we think, between Major Hughes, Major Collins and our excellent friend Mr. Capeheart. All of them I understand are good sound Worth men Major Hughes' election is considered tolerably certain; the people it would seem are at a loss to determine between Capeheart and Collins, both being excellent gentlemen and each having strong claims and many friends.

Lyon is also a candidate and other gentlemen. Lyon it is understood, is a Holden man, and we think is out of the question; besides his course just before his last election for a seat in the Convention, and during the sitting of the Convention, gave as far as we can learn, great dissatisfaction. The other gentlemen running we do not know so much about, but many of them have warm friends.

We think Worth will carry this county by a handsome majority. Holden will not get a majority at Oxford, and at Henderson, Townsville and Williamsboro' will get but very few if any.

JUNIUS.

The Georgia Convention has passed the ordinances declaring the ordinance of secession null. The Convention will readily pass all the ordinances necessary to the reconstruction of the State.

Newbern, Etc.

NEWBERNE N. C., Nov. 3, 1865.

EDITOR SENTINEL: Dear Sir—If you have no correspondent in Newbern, perhaps, a few notes of men and things in this vicinity may not come amiss, and though our hand is but little accustomed to the stylus, we feel it a pleasure to contribute even our mite to the interests of a journal which is so ardent and able a champion of Southern respectability. We use the term Southern respectability advisedly and in place of "Southern Rights." That expression has seen its day and is obsolete. But while we acknowledge that the past four years have taught us that our vaunted dogma can have no practical expression, so long as the twenty-three Northern States forbid, and while we quietly acquiese in their decision as the weaker to the stronger, we are by no means ready to believe, and have yet to learn that they demand of us, the sacrifice of all honor and self-respect as an entrance fee to the Union. We are not at all convinced that we shall be compelled to bow the knee to the Jupiter who nods in the Capitol, and whine out—"Behold father Johnson, we bring thee thy son William, even the man Holden. Now receive us we beseech thee into thy sheep-fold." No, the idea of such an abandonment of all our manhood is preposterous, and never will be required. The cry of "Holden and go in, or Worth and stay out" is but the vaporing of a set of demagogues, who in the straits of an unworthy cause are compelled to pratice the advice given the younger Weller by his affectionate progenitor. "Samvel if you must lie always tell a big one." And they do tell a big one!

Why, the idea that the Southern people will be compelled to barter away their great Magna Charta, the right to express their choice at the polls for the meagre privilegde of sending some half a score of politicians to the Capital, is so absurd, that we shall not be surprised to hear at any time that President Johnson has taken the radical press in this State severely to task, for having held him up in such a ridiculously tyranical position. If we may believe them, something like the following dialogue will take place when our Congressmen appear at the door of the Capitol. President Johnson loquitur, "Come up here all you young Republics and give an account of yourselves. Mississippi! whom have you got for Governor?" "Well sir, we concluded that Gen. Humphreys had been a good soldier and so we chose him." "All right. Mississippi you are the doctor—step into the Union. And now South Carolina, whom have you elected?"—"Please sir, we thought as how Gen. Wade Hampton would suit us"—"very well old Palmetto—pluck to the last. However pass in—and now here you North Carolina who in the thunder have you got?" "Mr. Worth sir. He's been a Union man all through the war and never did have nothin to do with secession." "Why you infernal contumacious Tar heels! Did'nt you know I wanted Bill Holden? Did'nt I convert him from secession as soon as I found it would'nt pay? Now you can jist stay out in the cold till you freeze and oh! Billy H——, here the President is supposed to walk off majestically, whistling "you got no money, and you cant come in."

Can anything more contrary to President Johnson's whole course be imagined than the assertion that the free expression of our preferences between two gentlemen of the same principles will close the door to our resumption of the privileges we formerly held in the union? The response will roll up on next Thursday from all quarters of the State, no, no, no!

The people in this district concur that they are free born citizens and are unwilling to sell their birth rights for any advantages no matter how tempting. They have heard the cry Holden! Holden! long enough, and are determined to try a man who is at least Worth enough to put a stop to this system of holding on and who will not hold on, but will go steadily forward until peace and prosperity are restored to our distracted commonwealth." Consistency thou art a jewel"—says the poet, and though we know Mr. Worth to be too unostentatious a man to wear many jewels, yet with this one to illume his past history, he can walk the course fearlessly, knowing that every good and true man in the State will rally on the 9th, to bear him in triumph to the Gubernatorial mansion. A stranger in New Berne would probably be surprised at the absence of all political agitation. After listening to the buzz of discusion in the western districts we would wonder at the seeming apathy of this. But upon examination he would trace the cause of this to the almost general unaminity of choice among the people. He would find that Mr. Worth's friends are so largely in the ascendant that they consider it unnecessary to do more than put out a ticket. And a noble ticket it is—Jonathan Worth for Governor, C. C. Clark for Congress. John D. Whitford for the Senate. Judge Manly and S. W. Chadwick, for the Commons, and other gentlemen of acknowledged ability, for the minor offices. It may well be styled, "the people's ticket."

But enough of political matters. New Berne is very quiet and orderly at present. The colored troops have been removed from town, and it is probable that large numbers of the vagrant negroes in the vicinity will follow them—"a consummation devoutly to be wished." Business has been falling off a good deal of late, owing to the fact that up country merchants have now become pretty generally supplied with goods, but large quantities of cotton continue to come in, and commission houses, reap the benefit.—There is nothing interesting in the way of news, and so I close for the present.

RASMED.

Let the People Have Light.

MR. EDITOR: I have just returned from a tour through a number of Counties, and have conversed with a great many gentlemen from all sections of the State. From what I have been able to gather there can be no doubt of Mr. Worth's election by an overwhelming majority. All that the people need is light. Send out the documents Mr. Editor, in every direction. The people are arousing themselves everywhere.—Their voice on the 9th will be heard in thunder tones against the narrow and misguided policy of the "straitest sect."

I was at Pittsboro' on yesterday at the speaking of the County candidates. The Holdenites seemed sanguine and were very clamorous—but my candid opinion is that they can be defeated if the friends of Worth would only make the proper exertions. Stir them up, Mr. Editor—arouse them from their inactivity—give the people of Chatham light—let the good men of the County, whose voices were stifled in the last election, come forth from retirement and battle for the right, and old Chatham will stand forth "redeemed, regenerated and disenthralled."

S.

November 3, 1865.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—Never, since North Carolina asserted her rights as a free and independent State, has there been so important an election as that which will take place on Thursday next. The questions to be decided are not those of place and power merely, but they involve principles that intimately affect the rights and liberties of the citizen. We have just emerged from a long and bloody war which has been most disastrous in its results to the South, and which has left her at the entire mercy of the victors. Thus far, the policy of the victorious government has been magnanimous and kind towards the vanquished. The administration of President Johnson has been eminently acceptable to the South, and under his guidance and favorable policy, the Southern people hope soon to be back in the Union, and upon the high road to prosperity and happiness. But unfortunately for the people of this State, they have among them politicians who, to subserve their own ends and purposes, would not only throw themselves in the way to prevent a return of the State into the Union, but would foster and endeavor to keep alive the animosities. the unhappy struggle engendered and gave rise to. These are not merely bare assertions, but I expect to prove what I assert. Has not the Standard of this city adopted and enunciated, day after day and week after week, the execrable motto, "Holden and go back, or Worth and stay out?" Is not that a direct mandate to the people that they shall elect Gov. Holden, or remain out of the Union? By what authority does the Standard proclaim this mandate? Certainly not by any authority derived from President Johnson, for his repeated declarations are, "the people must be trusted" in the choice of their civil rulers. Again, the Standard cautions the public against voting for gentlemen who are still unpardoned, asserting that they cannot take their seats in the legislative halls if elected—and all this with the knowledge that the President has just pardoned thirty odd members of the Georgia Convention who were unpardoned at the time of their election, thus making good his declaration, "the people must be trusted." Am I not right then, Mr. Editor, in asserting that we have politicians among us who look more to self than to the common welfare of the State, and who, to subserve personal ends, would trample under foot the most sacred rights of the citizen. The people will be called upon to declare at the coming election whether they will tamely submit to the threats and dictation of the Standard, or assert the right which is guaranteed to them of freely choosing their civil magistrate Should they now bow to the dictation of the Standard, what guaranty have they that hereafter, in order to perpetuate the power of Gov. Holden, it may not say to them, 'do thus and so, or certain pains and penalties await you.' It is said that "power is ever stealing from the many to the few." It behooves the people, then, to be ever on their guard and to promptly resist the first and every encroachment upon their rights and liberties. In the recent elections in other States, the people have manfully asserted their right to choose for themselves their public servants, and President Johnson has sustained them in that right. Shall it be said that the people of North Carolina are less free, less independent than those of her sister States? I trust not. Then, Mr. Editor, let us rally around that stern old patriot and estimable gentleman, Jonathan Worth, "the Quaker's son." In him, the people will have a chief magistrate who will uphold the fair fame and honor of the State, and who will be most acceptable to President Johnson and our North Carolina friends—His political record is without spot or blemish. Born and brought up in the bosom of one of our most respectable Quaker families, his walk in after-life has been such as to illustrate the purity and moral beauty for which that time-honored class of our fellow-citizens has become proverbial. Let us, then, for his long and useful public services, place upon his head, whitening with the frosts of time, the civic crown which he so justly deserves. Let us do this, and in such a manner that political aspirants for all time to come, may know that civic honors in North Carolina are not attainable by the by-paths and cross-roads of the demagogue, but by the plain and straight-forward way of political honesty and consistency.

VINDICATOR.

For the Sentinel.

"KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE, that it is Holden and go back, or Worth and stay out."—Standard

Mr. Editor:—Such are the words which have been emblazoned in large characters upon the colors of the Standard, during the present election campaign. Are they not an insult to the intelligence and understanding of the people of this State? Does that paper suppose that those who have been justly denominated "the free-est of the free" can be driven by threats into the support of men or measures that they most heartily detest? No, Mr. Editor, were such an alternative as that proclaimed by the Standard really at issue, the people of this State if I rightly comprehend their true character, would greatly prefer remaining out of the Union, to accepting a man for civil governor whose political record they abhor.

But is such an alternative really at issue? Has the President of the United States enacted, as a condition precedent to our getting back into the Union, that we shall elect Gov. Holden as our civil Magistrate? So far from it, his declarations have uniformly been, that the "people must be trusted in the choice of their civil rulers. His action has been in conformity to those declarations. Look to Georgia and Mississippi. In the latter State, the people brought forward and triumphantly elected General Humphreys, as civil Governor in opposition to Judge Fisher, the favorite of the Provisional Governor. Upon reception of the news of the election, the President immediately pardons Gen. Humphreys, who enters upon the duties of his office. In Georgia, the people elected to the Convention about thirty gentlemen unpardoned. The President immediately telegraphs to the Provisional Governor of that State, to furnish him a list of the names of the gentlemen so elected, in order that he might issue pardons to them forthwith. Yet with a knowledge of all these facts and the declaration of President Johnson that "the people must be trusted," the Standard has the effrontery to assert that the issue in the coming election is, "Holden and go back or Worth and stay out." I repeat, Mr. Editor, it is not only an insult to the intelligence of the people of this State, but it is discourteous to the President of the United States—viewing the magnanimity and forbearance which mark his policy in reference to the South. The Standard must be in the utmost strait indeed, when it makes use of such party tactics in order to frighten the people from voting for the man of their choice. But I can tell the Standard, the people do not intend to be thus frightened. They require much more positive evidence than its mere ipse dixit, that the issue at the coming election is, "Holden and go back or Worth and stay out." Moreover, I will assure the young Joses that before the Ides of March next, the "Quaker's son" will be quietly and coolly sitting by a good fire in the Executive office, while his Excellency, Gov. Holden, will be "out" in the cold.

October, 17, 1865-61 tde.
 Goldsboro', Wilmington and New Berne papers, please publish.

To the Voters of Wake County.

At the request of many voters, I am a candidate in this County for the House of Commons of the General Assembly.

The Convention requested the Governor to appoint a committee of three persons to prepare and report to the Legislature a system of laws for freedmen, and to specify what laws relating to them, ought to be repealed. He has done me the honor to designate me as one of them. This work, with other indispensable engagements will so occupy my whole time as to forbid my mingling much, if any, with the people.

I avail myself of this occasion to assure you of my grateful sense of your confidence recently expressed in electing me to the Convention. If I am honored again by your confidence, I shall strive to merit it by my services. Very respectfully yours,

71-tde. B. F. MOORE.

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE ÆTNA LIFE INSUSANCE COMpany of Hartford, have appointed

WILLIAM H. CROW,

their General Agent for the establishing sub Agents in North Carolina and Virginia, according to his discretion. This Company has no superior in this country, is of long standing, and its Assets are over a million and a half dollars. It has a surplus of $300,000 over and above what is required to reinsure all its policies. Its monthly receipts are over $150,000. And it is issuing monthly nearly 1000 policies. Its rates are moderate and reasonable, and all losses promptly paid. Thus it is commended to all who wish to provide for their families and loved ones, a certainty for support when their early dependants shall have passed away.

For further information, call on the agent at his office formerly occupied by General Haywood.

WM. H. CROW, Agent.

Raleigh, October 27 67-1m.

North Carolina Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

AT A MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE Company on the 27th of September, an assessment of 15 per cent. was levied on all premium Notes in the office of the Company at the time the losses occurred, to be paid in three installments, viz: six, nine and twelve months from 1st October, 1865.

The amount of premium Notes on hand,	$220,000
" " Allowed Losses,	16,000
" " Unsettled do.	7,000

(There are some losses not yet reported, the amount of which, of course, cannot now be stated.)

The assessment may appear to be disproportionate to the amount of the losses; but the Directors, taking into consideration the changes in property by sale, without transfer of policies, by destruction during the war, &c, &c do not think that more will be raised by it than will be needed to meet the actual wants of the Company.

There will be, necessarily some delay in the payment of the losses. It is hoped, however, that there will be no complaint on this account; especially when it is recollected that payment in some cases, was tendered in Confederate currency and refused.

The Company is prepared to take risks as in former times, and on as favorable terms. Address all letters to the Secretary. T. H. SELBY, Pres't.

LOUISBURG

FEMALE COLLEGE.

REV. T. M. JONES, A. M., Pres't and Proprietor.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will begin on the second Wednesday in January 1866.

Louisburg is a village seldom surpassed for health intelligence, refinement and morality. It is in Franklin County nine miles from Franklinton on the R. and Gaston Railroad. Between these points there is a daily stage line, connecting with trains going North and South.

The College building located in a beautiful grove, on an elevated site is large, commodious and well ventilated. It will be thoroughly renovated and fitted up with neat furniture and fire places in the dormitories. It is our purpose to establish for young ladies a school of the highest grade affording superior facilities for the acquisition of a thorough and accomplished education.

With the advantages of a good library, a well selected Chemical and Philosophical apparatus, a competent Faculty and large experience in connection with the Greensboro' Female College, we hope, by a faithful discharge of duty, to merit a liberal share of patronage. Boarding pupils will live as members of the President's family. Terms reasonable, and will be made known in due time. Those desiring to send their daughters, will please address me, for the present, at Greensboro', N. C, and circulars will be sent.

T. M. JONES.

A Valuable Lenoir county Farm for Sale, Lease or Rent.

THE SUBSCRIBER OFFERS FOR SALE, LEASE or rent one of the most valuable farms in the county of Lenoir, or in the State.

This plantation contains 1410 acres, of which about one half is cleared and well improved. One half of that which is cleared is well adapted to cotton, and the whole to the growth of corn.

It is located within 2½ miles of the Rail Road at Mosely Hall, and 1½ miles of Rockford on Neuse River.

Mr James Wood, who resides within a few miles of the farm will show it to persons desiring to see it.

Applicants will address me at Kinston.
